Pre-requisite Questions for Youth Participant: Indigenous youth from across the province told us they want to improve their identity, confidence, sense of purpose and support networks. The Standing Bear Youth Leadership Camp is designed to support you to do this. To help us determine what is most important for this camp, please complete the following:

	Strongly Disagree							Strongly Agree
a) I want to learn more about my identity (my culture, who I am, what I believe, and what is important)	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	Don't Know
b) I want to be more confident as the result of having a good understanding of my strengths as a potential leader.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	Don't Know
c) I want to develop a strong support network.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	Don't Know
d) I want a clear vision for my future education and/or career.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	Don't Know
e) I want a clear vision for my recreation and leisure interests.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	Don't Know
f) I want a clear vision for the kind of home and family I'd like to have.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	Don't Know
g) I want a clear vision for how I can serve my community.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	Don't Know

Application deadline is August 15th. Space is limited to 25 participants. First registered, first served.

- 1) Is there something specific you'd like to learn more about?

- 2) Do you have a specific skill or interest e.g. game, activity, sport you'd be willing to share with others at the camp?

Policy re Smoking, Alcohol and Drugs

ASWCO is committed to the ongoing health and wellness of its staff, volunteers, guests and participants. As per ASWCO's policy, all employees and visitors are prohibited from smoking at or during ASWCO sponsored events.

In order to maintain a safe and secure environment for youth, the consumption of alcohol or use of illegal drugs at all ASWCO's events by staff, volunteers, guests, and participants is strictly prohibited. If such prohibited consumption or use occurs, offending individuals will be immediately asked to leave the premises or areas where the ASWCO event is being held.
